ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER REGARDING PRO HAC VICE ADMISSIONS AND MODIFYING LOCAL RULE OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE 9010-3

Upon consideration of the motion of the above-captioned Debtor and Debtor-in-possession (the "Debtor") for an Administrative Order Regarding Pro Hac Vice Admissions and Modifying Local Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9010-3 (the "Motion"); and after consideration of any objections filed thereto; and hearing held thereon; and there appearing that adequate notice of the Motion was provided and that no further notice is necessary; and after due deliberation, cause being shown; and it appearing that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interest of the Debtor, its creditors and estate, it is this 18th day of March, 2002, by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Maryland,

ORDERED, that the Motion be, and hereby is, GRANTED; and it is further ORDERED, that Local Rule 9010-3 is hereby modified and amended for purposes of the above-captioned case as follows:

- a. An attorney who is not a member of the Bar of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland need not be admitted pro hac vice in order to file a pleading or to participate telephonically in a hearing before this Court during the period of time between the Petition Date and sixty days; and

b. an attorney who is not a member of the Bar of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland must be admitted pro hac vice in order to appear in person before this Court; and

c. a party represented by an attorney who has been admitted pro hac vice must also be represented by local counsel who is a member of the Bar of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, pursuant to Local Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9010-3 and said local counsel (i) must sign all pleadings filed by said pro hac vice counsel but (ii) need not accompany said pro hac vice counsel at hearings or other Court appearances; and it is further ORDERED, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, any attorney who files a pleading in this case or appears, in person or telephonically, before this Court is subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the District Court and of this Court and is deemed to consent to such jurisdiction by such filing or appearance.
